

Camp Artistic Directors

Rob Kirkham was born and raised in Vancouver, the son of a Vancouver Symphony Orchestra musician, and the nephew of original New York City rock n' rollers. Music has been a part of Kirkham's life since his youth and he plays a variety of instruments such as guitar, bass guitar and drums/ percussion. In 2004, he formed the band The Vincent Black Shadow with whom he has released two albums and two EP's, shot five music videos, and traveled around the world performing with international artists such as Joan Jett, Bjork, and Snow Patrol. Since 2009, Kirkham has been a grade seven teacher, previously at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Elementary School and currently at Saint Paul's. He created and led the RockBand program in which students ages 10-12 perform a myriad of classic and modern pop rock songs on a variety of instruments. He recently completed a Masters degree in Drama Education. This will be his eighth summer directing the Rock Band Glee Camp.

Mark Osborne was the teacher librarian and involved in the dramatic arts at Our Lady of Perpetual Help school for a decade. During this time, he directed hundreds of students in a variety of school play productions such as The King of New York, The Grinch, The Nutcracker & The Mouse King, Back to the Future, as well as the musical, Godspell. Mark's camp experience also extends to sports in which he led the basketball camp, Hoop Dreams, for several years. He and his wife, Johanna, run a video production company called Iris Pictures. This is his sixth year co-directing the Rock Band Glee Camp.
